Introduction

So many people want to get started with making money online, and trust me everyone looks at it like it's this impossible thing to do. Let me tell you something right now, this isn't the 1950's and you don't need hundreds and thousands of dollars to start a business. I started my first business with no money at all, I had nothing in my pockets and I just had this urge to make money. I spent a lot of time just looking around trying to find get rich quick schemes and ways to make money on demand but none of it worked, it just wasted my time. Since the beginning of the business the best way to make money has always been to develop a brand or business and get trusted then the rest will follow.

Sometimes this does take a lot of money though and tedious boring work. What people don't get is that there is no magical way to instantly generate your fortune. There's always going to be two types of people in this world, those who do and those who watch. Now you can sit there on your computer all day watching motivational videos but until you actually get into it and you started making money you're just going to be like everyone else.

When I first started I was told by my competitors that I was never going to get anywhere, I had no idea how the business worked, I didn't know what I was doing and I was just making a fool of myself. What they never expected though was that I was going to be making more than them and have more employees than them in the end. Guess how much I sold my whole operation for in the end? $15,000. Yea, It's not going to allow me to retire but I made a lot more when I was doing it. Keep this in perspective.

- I had no investments.
- I was only a teenager.
- I could only spend an hour or two a day working on it.

You CAN make money, just keep an open mind and follow this guide.

Customers First

Speaking to customers is the most important part in executing this plan. I'm going to go through some basics things you need to know when speaking to customers and teach you how to get the same customers coming back.

So let's start with let's say a dentist, you're trying to sell them something. They're a professional in the medical industry and they're very educated and smart. You need to approach them in a professional way and make sure you tell them what your services can do for them. Don't even try to sell them anything, you should always do research on their company and approach them with a what can I do for you attitude.

You're always going to want to over deliver and always give them what they gave for any more. They're a lot of people in this world and you want to show them you're the best person to do the required job, try to answer emails promptly and always answer their questions.

This brings me to the next point, once you get the ball rolling it just keeps rolling. They'll tell their friends and so forth and you're going to be making a lot of money. For this every person that emails you just save their email in your contact list so you can send promotions to them and use there email to market your other services as well. The business you're learning about is all about treating customers right and going above and beyond what there expectations are.

If you remember this you will be beyond successful in whatever you do in life.

Making Money

Now is the part you've all been waiting for. You finally got to it. If you didn't read the rest of the eBook and you've just skipped here you'll probably fail. Go back and read the other to pages as this all comes into play.

Now what you're going to be doing is outsourcing SEO, Traffic & Other services. Now I'm not talking about going on Fiverr and getting something for 5 and sell it for 10, I'm talking about getting something for 5 and selling it for 50!

You're probably wondering how you would do this, most people that are on the forums I'm on all know about Fiverr and or don't have this type of money. Remember when I was talking about business owners? You're going to be selling all of these services to business owners. We can use the following services to find customers.

Yelp

Whitepages

BizJournals

You're going to be contacting businesses and remember, be professional but casual as the same time. Don't act like you're some robot and for every business you need to make sure you're letting them know how it can help THEM. And how it can BENEFIT them. Hell, even tell them how it will help there current state of business and how it will make there business that much better. Be casual, be nice and be helpful.

For this example we'll use Yelp.

1. Elias Qare, DDS

UGH!!!! I do not like dentists, I worked as an Office manager in a dental office in my younger years and I was not thrilled with the boss. "The Dentist" all the unnecessary work

I've been going to Dr. Terry for about 5 years now and just got home from my bi-annual appointment. The staff is great and Dr. Terry is both super personable and a really good dentist - no

Great first experience with Doctor Daniel at the beginning of the month. It's been a long time since I've been to the dentist and I've only ever had the same one. As good as my previous

If you look up dentist there will be hundreds of results alone. Each one of these is a potential client. Start taking down there emails and such. After you get around 50 different emails talk about how you can make the business they currently have better. You can offer them anything you find on Fiverr or SEOClerks. I find that if they have a Facebook without a header explaining to them how a header could benefit them and then charge them around 45 dollars. You spend 5 dollars and then you'll make 40 dollars in profit as easy as that. If you send out 50 emails and 10 of them respond that's 400 dollars for you right into your pocket.

The best part about this is, you don't have to do any work. As long as you're willing to communicate with customers for a few hours a day you're going to be good to go. The first business I tried to start was a SEO service. I was outsourcing but I still spent $400 on the website just to find out that there was no room for me in the market.

As long as you have a email and services like yelp you'll be able to offer design, SEO, traffic and anything else. Always make sure you're looking at the current ratings for the gig and make sure they deliver on time. The worst thing that could happen to you was that you get a order in for your customer and then the person doesn't deliver.

Remember you're making a lot of profit so always treat your customer amazing and throw in extras. In the future they'll remember that and you use again. Spending $1 on an extra could trigger them to use you again and you'll be profiting another $100.

I've also offered to make them a website and just outsourced it. The biggest turnover I had was paying $200 and then selling it to a dentist for $2,000. That was a good day. Remember, the more they trust you and the better you treat them means they'll trust you a lot more and will spend more money.

Remember, always do check ups as well. Send out an email to all past customers just asking how there business is going and such, maybe they'll remember you and use you for further services. This is an amazing way to make even more money. You'll often find that once you get a tightly knight group of customers they'll keep coming back. As far as how much you should charge, I usually charge 80% more than what I got it for. Let's say I can buy something for $5 I like to sell it for $40-50 dollars.

Target Markets

When you're sending out these emails you want to contact people that generally make a lot of money. Someone who makes more money will be more likely to try out what you have to offer. Here are a list of the top paying professions in the United States.

Always contact people that make a lot of money so that way you can charge more thus making more for yourself.

Page 7

Here is a list of amazing things that I find will work very well to sell. I would recommend bookmarking them so that way you have them.

Facebook Likes

Instagram Followers

SEO Services

Website Traffic

YouTube Views

Twitter Followers

Article Writing

Graphic Design

I find that graphic design as well as Facebook likes very well. Sometimes I sell 1,000 Facebook likes for $20 one time I contacted a government official in India and he actually ended up buying 10,000 Facebook likes for $3,000. I spent like 30 dollars on really high quality Facebook likes and the rest was profit for me.

It was amazing, some of my competitors started getting nervous as they said I couldn't do it, they needed websites to succeed and I showed them that me, a teenager with no investment money could and would become better than them. I even bought one of my competitors business, and then made it my own.

Whatever you sell, always over deliver, always treat the customer with the utmost respect and make sure you're telling them how you can help them, how what you offer will make them better. If you do this and you treat the customers amazing then you're going to be making some amazing amounts of money in no time.

Never give up on this.

Other Ways Of Advertising

Maybe you want other ways to outsource? In this section we're going to discuss other places you can outsource services to make money.

Social Media - I used to make money by selling Twitter followers on Twitter. I basically just built up a large follower base and then created an account such as BuyFollowers, you get the idea. I then redirected them to a simple landing page I made and had a PayPal checkout. I got followers for $1/1,000 and sold them for $15/1,000

Forums - Many of the people reading this found this eBook through forums. You may also offer your services via forums but please be aware many of them are saturated and you're going to have to sell the followers for much cheaper thus not making as much money. I'd stay away from them.

YouTube - Another method I used was to contact YouTubers and offer to market their channel. Basically I'd tell them to upload a tutorial and then I'd boost it with high retention views and some other ranking stuff to make it get real views. I typically charged around $100 for 50k views.

Phone Calls - If you're feeling confident you can try to call businesses you find. I find that this has a much higher success rate but it also isn't for everyone. If you're someone that is able to I would use this.

School - I used to sell followers to people at school. Everyone is looking to have the most followers so I would charge $20 for around 2,000 followers. It became a war between everyone and pretty soon they had a lot of followers and I had a lot of money.

Bonus Method

So you're checking out the bonus method. Maybe you're looking to earn even more income so you're reading up on this as well. Let's get into it.

What you're going to be doing is creating a general humor website and I'm going to explain how you can generate massive amounts of income off of this. To profit you're going to need to be apart of some type of ad network like AdSense or 7search.

Just create your website and install Wordpress. Install a nice looking theme and then post 10-15 funny pictures. Now start posting them on Reddit and link back and watermark every picture. I have generated 2,000 unique hits a day with this method.

The alternate way is to contact Facebook page owners and ask them to link back to your posts on your website, they typically enjoy doing this as it's free content for them and all they have to do is post a website link. This is amazing as you can generate a lot of traffic that will convert.

A tip is to keep generating traffic and be consistent. If you start to get enough traffic and make good money you can start to make even more money as more people will be interested in working with your website. I've started a lot of humor websites using this and sold some of them in the end for a lot of money.

Remember all you need to do is post 3 images a day, you can find huge packs of funny pictures so they're on your desktop ready to post. It won't take that long but you can make a lot of money off of ads in the end.

Conclusion

So now this eBook is over, I'll use this page to give you some final resource and attempt to speak some final words of wisdom to you.

So you've spent money on this guide, out of your own pocket. Don't just go looking for more get rich quick methods, stock and try this, for an hour a day. Dedicate an hour a day to doing this and you will see results in the end. If you close out of this guide you've just wasted money. Keep at it until you at least get your money back.

Remember, treat your customers good and you will make a lot of money. I remember near the end of my business I wasn't even marketing anymore but I had 10+ people a day emailing me just asking for my latest services. If you're doing SEO you can offer to give them new SEO every month and set up packages for a monthly fee as that's recurring. I also used to have a recurring traffic fee where I would send 1,000 visitors to their website a day for $500 a month, and man did I make money. I sent high quality social media visitors to them for $3/1,000 and it cost me $90 a month to send the traffic to them.

Guess how much I made? $410 dollars give or take per month off of each of these clients I had. At times I had around 4-5 businesses doing this and I was making a lot of money. It's all about making them come back, never push a customer to far though. It doesn't matter how annoying they are just always treat them good.

Another tip is to ignore your competition, I found myself obsessing over what everyone else was doing, just forget about them and work on your operation. That's about it, just stay true, stay dedicated and get out there and make some money!
