About PayPal

Paypal.com is the most popular and powerful online 3rd party payment processor of all time. They have over 100 million users in worldwide, and are a partner company of the very popular eBay.com.

So why fret?

With that in mind, you would think that everything would be running very smoothly with this billion dollar company, but in more cases than not, Paypal sellers end up very unhappy in as an end result. That is why I, EvanC, am here to make sure you always win.

I assume you buy virtual goods, since that is a large percent of transactions done through HackForums. This guide was specifically made as a resource to make sure you never lose money again.

Winning As a Seller

So you just sold a good or service to a new and sketchy member. You are checking your email when you see the dreaded “Chargeback for case xxx-xxx-xxx”.

Damn. Is what you are thinking to yourself. How will I get my money back? Good thing you bought this eBook, now you will have your money back faster than ever.

Way #1 (The Fastest, but you already know this)

You want it all back, but I am just including this in case you need your money fast, and can't wait more than a day.

Way #2

This way will require a bit more time and effort, but is effective 98% of getting ALL, yes ALL of your money back.

Insert your name on PayPal and the current date onto a notepad, and drag it over mine.

Screenshot the whole picture with “snipping tool” or your OS’s equivalent to screenshot

Step 5. Under “Case Notes”, copy and paste this.

This was payment for a coding service done by me, which took me 3 hours to do. Now (INSERT SCAMMERS NAME HERE) is trying to scam me for my time. All that I wanted was to start my own website services but it's impossible when people scam me for my time. I will attach proof of my services to this message. Hopefully this scammer will be stopped.

Step 6. Don't respond to whatever the buyer says to you. You will win the case, since this falls under “intangible goods” (not physical goods) which means that the seller has full protection.

*I will be updating this section with new information periodically.

Winning As a Buyer

This is the easier of all of the methods. If you want to chargeback and win a case for a virtual good or service, follow each step precisely.

Step 1. Initiate a chargeback under “Item not received”

Step 2. For description of the problem, use my template below.

Hello sir!

I was just wanting to know where my Klipsch S4i headphones are (YOU CAN INSERT ANY PRODUCT HERE). It's been a little over 2 weeks now and I haven't received it at my house yet! If you could just send me a tracking number, I'll cancel this case immediately!

Thanks!

(YOUR NAME HERE)

Step 3. Make sure to sound nice and happy in your message. When the seller responds, he wont have a tracking number and 80% will just chat profanity back, which PayPal does not like.

Step 4. You will win this because it falls under Buyer Protection “Item not Received”

Other Scenarios
