Introduction

Sex sells, period. Men go crazy about hot looking women. It's in our nature, after all. The hunger in our eyes is insatiable, we see a beautiful girl or woman passing by in the street and most of us will turn our heads to "take a better look". And our minds start producing images from various porn movies or our own private sexual desires and fantasies.

This insatiable hunger is our card to play. Most men would do a lot of things to get what they want from a girl. They would do what she asks them to, if they really want that something from her.
And the more bait she puts out – the more fish she gets.

Yes, sex, nudity and sex talk sell, and with such a high conversion rate, that you will always be able to sell.

The Method

- Step #1

Setup fake account(s)

Social networks are terrific source of advertising traffic, especially adult traffic.

There are millions of people who will send/accept friend requests to/from gorgeous, handsome girls, regardless of their place of residence, age, sexual orientation, etc.

What you need to do is create fake profiles of a very attractive girl, on as many networks as you can.

Number one network you want to use is Facebook.

From there to further on, you get the picture.

Other suitable networks are MySpace, Twitter, Google+, StumbleUpon, etc. The list is endless.

You can also use popular social blog networks like Pinterest, Tumblr, Blogger, and so on.

Depending on your choice, you may use only one, or more networks, but the point of the whole method is to connect as many profiles as possible, to achieve greater virality, and grab as much traffic as possible, to achieve greater chance of being noticed.

Search for an e-whore pictures pack online and use it for your fake profiles pictures, but only upload photos of girls with clothes, otherwise, your social network account(s) will get banned. I don't have to point it out to you that it is allowed to use explicit sexual content on social blog networks, of course. As long as your profiles look real enough, you're good.

- Step #2

Sign up as an affiliate to an adult network

Choose one of the two adult networks listed on page #7 and join their affiliate program. As soon as you get your affiliate link, cloak it with a redirect form your new domain you got at Godaddy.

Sign up to Cam4 and NaughtyReviews, using your female name and your female e-mail address. Fill in the profile details just like you did in your Facebook, MySpace, etc. profiles, and set the same profile picture on both.

- Step #3

Download "teasing" videos

Use video downloaders listed on page #6 or search for others available all over the web, to download videos of girls performing on their web cams. Another way of obtaining these "teasing" videos is to get an e-whore pack of a girl with both pictures set and video(s).

Split every video in two parts - First part should be the beginning of the video, where the girl is dressed provocatively enough to tickle mans imagination and desire, maybe even flash her buttocks a bit. The second part you will use later.

Use Watermark Subtitle Creator listed on page #6 to add your own watermarked subtitles to the videos, with a link to your profile page on Cam4.

- Step #4

YouTube video

Create a new YouTube channel and upload your “teaser”. Use a provocative, eye-catching video name, and make it look like a personal video a girl would upload. Again, add the watermark with your Cam4.com profile link.

There is no manual for AVS Tubes software, so you’ll have to manage on your own. If it’s too hard for you, don’t worry. You can still upload your teasers to YouTube and other video sharing sites manually, but trust me, it’s no rocket science to handle this software. You can even use the manual of AVS Adult, there’s almost no difference.

Back to the video. Like stated before, you should name it something personal and provocative. Also, use keywords in your video’s title, description, and keyword tags.

At the bottom of the video description, add your social network profile link (Facebook, MySpace, etc.), and your Cam4.com profile link. Why? So your potential “customers” would be able to add you to their friends list and automatically notify their friends that they’ve become friends with a hot looking, attractive girl, which increases your chances to get more customers.

Your Cam4 profile link is there to point them to your cam show service, which you can set your own price for, or leave it negotiable. It’s your own choice.

You can also add annotations in your video, containing your Cam4 profile link and optionally, your social network profile link.

- Step #5

Cam4.com profile

There's a nice feature you should use on Cam4.com. Go to your profile and click "Manage". In the options column on the left, you will see an option named "Edit Social Networks".

Cam4.com supports linking to nine of your social networks profiles; Hi5, Friendster, Facebook, MySpace, Google+, Badoo, Tagged, Twitter, and Orkut.

You should have an account on every of these networks. Put your profiles links and save changes.

This way, your customers can find your profile on every social network you link to, which again increases viral potential of this method.

As an addition, you can put your adult affiliate link cloaked with a redirect in your Cam4.com profile description, too.

- Step #6

Adult tube video blast

Use AVS Adult to upload your videos to hundreds of adult video sharing websites automatically. The manual should be clear enough for you. Again, don't forget your social networks profile links, your Cam4.com profile link, and your adult network cloaked affiliate link in the video's description, or/and watermark subtitles.

- Step #7

Target your customers and your traffic

This is what your NaughtyReviews account is for.

I won't go too deep onto this one, enough to say is that you just fill your profile info and personal description, add some text in the "About me" section, and post your classified targeted ads. Targeting options are endless, you can choose from 52 world countries, almost every major state in the USA, and over 250 cities in the USA.

Post your classified ad. Make it look attractive. You can add your photos too. Fill in your contact details, this is a must. You can add your website, so put your adult network affiliate link cloaked with a redirect from the domain you registered with Godaddy.

Set up an auto-responder with your e-mail provider.

In Gmail, go to Settings > Vacation Responder.

In Hotmail, Options > Sending automated vacation replies.

Form an automated reply message saying that you aren't available right now but you would like if they would add you to their friends list on your adult social network (your cloaked affiliate link) and you will get back to them when you're available again.

This is just a little addition to the entire method by having them sign up to your adult network. If they upgrade, you'll get paid, plus the money you will get from them when they decide to buy your pictures and videos.

- Step #8

Classic e-whoring

This is the bottom line, the final source of cash you will rake in by setting this whole spider web of traffic and out of all the traffic tide you just pulled onto yourself.

But this is where your skills kick in. If you're interesting, talkative and able to turn them on, you will make them beg you to buy your stuff!

Wrap all of your photos up in a single pack, and your videos in another. Wrap all that up together in a complete pack.

Go to UploadNSell and upload each pack separately and grab those "Buy Now" links and buttons for all three packs. These links you will give to your customers if they decide to buy your packs. Also, you can install a website on the domain you purchased with Godaddy and place those buttons on it. It can be any kind of website, Wordpress will do fine, or even a single sales page.

- Step #9

Rinse & Repeat
